Next to B&B Althea

“Locanda del Menarost”, via Compagnoni 24, is a small restaurant with good local food at reasonable prices. Large servings. Just around the corner

We have close to us a bakery “Epoca del pane” – viale Campania 30, where I buy the bread every morning and where you will find pies, tarts, quiches and pizzas.

In via Fratelli Bronzetti 16 a big and well known outlet, “Il Salvagente”, branded menswear and ladieswear. On the same street, at nr 23 the outlet of “Martino Midali”, unconventional fashion for women.

Just behind “Il Salvagente”, on the corner of via Archimede and via Mameli, a small caffè “Marotin” offers coffee and a delicious range of snacks.

Proceeding along via Mameli you will find on your left “Moine”, a small lab where Roberta Gianani designs and creates exquisite jewelry.

On the other side of the street, in via Melloni 85, “Arte del ricevere” provides the very best in quality loose leaf teas.

Toward the town centre, in via Fiamma 40, an outlet of bed linen and tablecloth, “Mirabello Emporium”. The main shop, “Mirabello” is in the Brera area.

In Piazza Risorgimento at the famous bakery “Sissi” you can enjoy a small lunch in the backyard. “California Bakery” in viale Premuda 44, is a bakery as well as a restaurant open all day long.

If you are looking for a restaurant “La cantina di Manuela” is a good choice. Winebar and Italian modern food. In via Poerio 3, practically in Piazza Risorgimento.

In the city centre

The “Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II” is one of the city treasures and to dine here is something special. It isn't cheap ofcourse but a few of our guests have recommended the restaurant “Galleria”.

At “Lievito madre al Duomo”, in Largo Corsia dei Servi, they prepare daily only 400 pizzas and no more. All ingredients arrive directly from Naples. Service starts at 7 p.m.

For a light lunch “That's vapore”, in Corso di Porta Vittoria 5, just in front of the bus and tram stop 27-73-54. Cooksteamed baskets with pasta-rice-vegetables-fish-meat.

“Caffè della Pusterla”, via De Amicis 22. A large cafeteria where you will find newspapers from all the world and good food.

“La Vecchia Latteria”, via Unione 6, close to Piazza Duomo, is a small vegetarian restaurant. You have to arrive early to find a seat.

“Trattoria Milanese”, via Santa Marta 11, a good, old fashioned Italian restaurant, white tablecloths, local traditional dishes.

“Bioesseri”, in via De Amicis 45. A vegetarian cafeteria-juice bar-wine bar- restaurant overlooking a garden. Not too cheap, not too expensive.

Just behind La Rinascente you will find the best chocolate icecreams in town, “Cioccolati italiani”
